

MEMORANDUM

TO: Board Members
Alaska Industrial Development and Export Authority

FROM: John Springsteen
Executive Director

DATE: June 28, 2018

SUBJECT: Resolution No. G18-07 Adoption of Amendments to AIDEA Regulations (3 AAC 99, 3 AAC 101, 3 AAC 102, and 3 AAC 103 dealing with fees and rates in its bond, loan, Sustainable Energy Transmission and Supply (SETS) fund, new markets tax credit assistance guarantee and loan (NMTC), and Arctic Infrastructure Development fund (AIDF) programs)

The Alaska Industrial Development and Export Authority proposes to adopt regulation changes in Title 3 of the Alaska Administrative Code.

Every two years AIDEA staff reviews its regulations to determine if the rates and fees it charges are reasonable.

After review by staff, changes were made to application fees, loan guarantees, loan modifications, and reimbursement of third-party expenses paid by AIDEA; a new definition of “basis points” was added; certain items expressed as percentages were changed to basis points; and similar text in regulations was formatted to improve clarity and uniformity.

1. 3 AAC 99.110(b) increase nonrefundable application fee from [$1,000] to $1,100
2. 3 AAC 99.140(a)(1) change non-whole numbers: (one half of one percent) to 50 basis points; (two-tenths of one percent) to 20 basis points; (one and one half tenth of one percent) to 15 basis points
3. 3 AAC 99.140(a)(2) change non-whole numbers: (four-tenths of one percent) to 40 basis points; (one-tenth of one percent) to 10 basis points; (nine one-hundredths of one percent) to 15 basis points
4. 3 AAC 99.140(b) add text (nonrefundable) before amount of fee; increase modification fee from [$500] to $550; move $550 to before the word fee
5. 3 AAC 99.160(c) add word (nonrefundable); change non-whole numbers (one-half of one percent) to 50 basis points; (one-quarter percent) to 25 basis points
6. 3 AAC 99.210(b) increase nonrefundable preliminary application fee from [$200] to $250

7. 3 AAC 99.220(b) increase nonrefundable application fee from [$1,000] to $1,100 and to add a sentence “the financial institution must reimburse all third-party expenses of the authority related to the issuance of the authority’s loan participation”

3 AAC 99.110(b) is amended to read:

(b) The application must contain information sufficient to allow the authority to determine whether the proposed project and the applicant appear to be eligible to participate in the conduit revenue bond program and whether interest on the authority's bonds issued for the proposed project would be excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes under the code. The applicant must submit a nonrefundable $1,100 [$1000] fee to the authority with the application. If the application is for a refunding of a bond previously issued by the authority for the project, the authority may waive all or part of the fee set out in this subsection.

3 AAC 99.220(b) is amended to read:

(b) An application for authority participation must be submitted by the originator to the authority along with a nonrefundable $1,100 [$1000] fee. If the authority issues a commitment to purchase a participation in the originator's loan, and the loan commitment issued by the authority is accepted and signed by the originator and borrower and returned to the authority, the nonrefundable $1,100 [$1000] application fee shall be credited against the authority's commitment fee as required by 3 AAC 99.260(b). The financial institution must reimburse all third-party expenses of the authority related to the issuance of the authority's loan participation. The authority may require the originator to include with the application any of the following:

- (1) a letter of transmittal;
- (2) a loan summary, including originator approval at the appropriate level of authority;
- (3) a list of other unpaid loans to the applicant or, if the applicant is not a sole proprietorship, to any member of the applicant's business enterprise, from the state or other public corporation of the state along with applicant certification that each unpaid loan is current and no other loans exist;
- (4) a current credit report of the applicant and the guarantors, if any;
- (5) a signed current balance sheet and year-to-date profit and loss statement on the applicant, not more than 90 days old from the date of application, fiscal year-end balance sheet and profit and loss statement for the prior three years on the applicant; current balance sheet and federal income tax return for the prior two years on all guarantors and co-borrowers;

(6) copies of the applicant's federal income tax returns for the prior three years, if the balance sheet and profit and loss statement required from the applicant in (5) of this subsection are not audited by a certified public accountant;

(7) copies of the earnest money receipt and agreement, option to purchase, contract to purchase, or invoice for purchase of land, land and improvements, or tangible personal property related to the project or qualified energy development;

(8) a copy of a lease or easement for land and improvements related to the project or qualified energy development and, in the case of a hydropower project licensed or to be licensed by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, a copy of the documents designating a project boundary with a lease and or easement to be completed before closing giving the applicant control of the area within the project boundary;

(9) a detailed description of real or tangible personal property to be acquired for the project or qualified energy development;

(10) a detailed construction cost estimate;

(11) an estimate of the number of jobs to be created or retained by this project or qualified energy development;

(12) if the loan is to be secured by real property, a written appraisal report acceptable to the authority estimating the value of the real property:

(A) if the total loan amount is equal to or less than $1,000,000, the appraisal may be a summary appraisal report;

(B) if the total loan amount is greater than $1,000,000, the appraisal must be a self-contained appraisal report;

(13) if the loan is for the purchase of tangible personal property, an appraisal in a format acceptable to the authority prepared by an appraiser who is acceptable to the authority;

(14) copies of leases, or agreements to lease or to renew a lease between the applicant and tenants of the project or qualified energy development, including a list of tenants, lease rates, terms, and options;

(15) a financial feasibility analysis satisfactory to the authority;

(16) an environmental risk assessment satisfactory to the authority, followed by an environmental audit if required by the authority;

(17) if the loan is for improvements in energy efficiency, an analysis of the energy efficiencies that are expected to be achieved, including the units of energy expected to be saved over the life of the improvements and the dollar savings expected to be realized; and

(18) any other information considered necessary by the authority to evaluate the application.

3 AAC 99.350(e)(1) is amended to read:

(1) "true interest cost rate" means

(A) if the authority issues bonds to fund a participation in a loan, the rate on the bonds of the authority; or

(B) if the authority uses authority assets to fund a participation in a loan, the rate identified on the daily Federal Home Loan Bank of Seattle's Fixed-Rate Advances Index which most closely matches the term of the loan, and whether the type of loan has a fixed or variable interest rate, as determined by the authority, with the following adjustments:

(i) for a fixed rate loan, the rate during any fiscal year may not be lower than the five year return on the investment funds of the authority, expressed as an annual interest rate, as determined in the authority's review of its investments at the end of the third quarter of the prior fiscal year and for a variable rate loan, the rate during any fiscal year will not be lower than 375 [475] basis points;

(ii) for a variable rate loan, 100 [200] basis points will be added to the rate;

(a) If the authority provides development project financing for a development project that the authority will not own and operate, the initial interest rate on the financing will be set at the time the authority issues a development project financing commitment letter. The initial interest rate will be no less than 250 [FROM 250 TO 450] basis points above the interest rate paid on the securities of the United States Treasury that have a maturity date comparable to the term of the authority's financing. In the event that no United States Treasury security is directly comparable in maturity to the authority's development project financing, the authority may use the United States Treasury security the authority in its discretion determines to be most directly comparable as possible. The authority will establish the initial interest rate for the financing within this range based on the authority's evaluation of the relative risk of the transaction. In evaluating the risk of the transaction, the authority may consider the nature of the project applicant and its creditworthiness; the nature of the development project and its financial strengths or weaknesses; the size, length, and other terms of the financing; the collateral for the financing; and any other factors the authority reasonably determines to bear on the risk in the transaction.
