AIDEA Mourns Death of Skagway Mayor Monica Carlson

Mayor and Her Mother Succumb to Injuries from Accident in Nation's Capital

(Anchorage) – The Alaska Industrial Development and Export Authority (AIDEA) Board, management, and staff express our deepest sympathy for the tragic loss the Skagway community has suffered with the untimely death of Mayor Monica Carlson and her mother, Cora Adams.

“Mayor Carlson cared deeply about Skagway. The love she had for her community and its well-being was faithfully reflected in her time as a devoted public servant,” said AIDEA CEO/Executive Director, John Springsteen. “We are profoundly saddened by this loss. Our hearts go out to the family and to the residents of Skagway at this difficult time.”

AIDEA has a long-standing relationship with the community of Skagway, through its ownership of the Skagway Ore Terminal.

The Alaska Industrial Development and Export Authority is a public corporation of the state. AIDEA’s purpose is to promote, develop and advance the general prosperity and economic welfare of the people of Alaska.
